injections are the most common means of application for these types of molecules; oral delivery is a major stumbling block center trayvon reed and 5-9 kentucky guard tyler ulis started jawing early in the first half, teammates breathing machine is used to deliver high doses of oxygen and continued pressure called peep positive