for purposes of this evaluation, substances are divided into two groups, controlled substances and non-controlled substances these initiatives will allow ready identification of latex containing medical devices the formula upgrade will also benefit from a fragrance optimisation programme that will ensure consumers can really smell the difference after washing their hair